

Representing Ourselves as Unique Individuals

Name: _____

First.... As Miss J is reading you the story “The Name Quilt,” come up with three words, phrases or images that stand out to you. Place your ideas and thoughts in the 3 stars below and be ready to share your ideas.

If you had a patch on a name quilt, describe what your name patch would look like? (Note: remember to use adjectives in your description.)

Second.... You will be creating a piece of a star quilt in the shape of a diamond. Create a design on the diamond that represents who you are. This should be a rough sketch before moving onto your good copy (your piece of art). Decide colors, pictures and an overall design. Be sure your name is incorporated into your design. Please refer to your 'Who am I?' organizer in your 'Who am I?' booklet to help you determine what to add to your diamond to create the best representation of your identity.

Third... Put up your hand and show Miss J your rough sketch to receive your card stock diamond.

Now... Go through the checklist to make sure your design meets all the requirements and your diamond is well thought out and complete.

Criteria	Yes	No
Name: Is my name incorporated into my design?
Elements/Personal Representation: Do I have at least three elements on my diamond that represent who I am?
Connecting Prior Knowledge: Does each part of my design connect to what I have learned about myself throughout this unit?
Communication Can I explain how each part of my design represents who I am as a person?
Aesthetic (Bonus): Will my diamond stand out because of its colorful and thoughtful design?

A blank sheet of white paper with a black border. The page is filled with horizontal ruling lines, creating a series of rows for writing. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page.